Gordon Grill, Goodwood Park Hotel's premier fine dining restaurant has built a strong reputation for serving some of the finest steaks and Continental cuisine in Singapore, since its establishment in 1963. The restaurant was initially named Gordon Room on 30 July 1963 when it first opened, and subsequently renamed to Gordon Grill in 1965. Gordon Grill is named after Mrs Ezekiel Manasseh, the wife of one of the Manasseh brothers who bought over the hotel property which was then known as the Teutonia Club. Her maiden name was Gordon.

An icon on Scotts Road, Goodwood Park Hotel is housed in a uniquely designed building that dates back to 1900. A distinguished institution in hospitality circles, the hotel is one of the most reputable pioneers of the tourism industry. Much of her original beauty has been faithfully restored and her majestic air artfully accentuated with fluted columns, delicate woodworks, decorative plasterwork and graceful archways. Through the years, she has gained recognition for her exquisite elegance, legendary charm and tradition of excellence, with her Grand Tower gazetted a national monument in 1989. The Hotel has five distinctive restaurants, each providing an exquisite dining experience, along with a deli and a bar.
